

Capstone Project: Battle Of Neighborhoods (Part 1)

Introduction

Oklahoma known as the cowboy state of USA has a rich culture and heritage. Its residents are known as Oklahomans (or colloquially, "Okies"), and its capital and largest city is Oklahoma City. It happens to be the 28th most populous state in the USA. Oklahoma is fast growing state in terms of business and Industry.

This gives rise to a large amount of the state population comprising of immigrants. Six percent of Oklahoma residents are immigrants, while another 6 percent of residents are native-born U.S. citizens with at least one immigrant parent. One in 12 Oklahoma workers is an immigrant, making up a vital part of the state's labor force. In 2018, 236,882 immigrants (foreign-born individuals) comprised 6 percent of the population. The top countries of origin for immigrants were Mexico (45 percent of immigrants), Vietnam (5 percent), India (5 percent), Germany (3 percent), and Guatemala (3 percent).

This completely evidences the fact that Oklahoma has a quite a diverse culture living amongst it. Along the diverse culture comes in diverse people and their diverse food items. There are close to 7,067 eating and drinking places in Oklahoma as of 2018. Restaurants are a driving force in Oklahoma's economy. They provide jobs and build careers for thousands of people, and play a vital role in local communities throughout the state. Each of these restaurants belong to a different kind of cuisine such as Chinese, Mexican, Indian and French etc.
